

Suburbarazzi

Stalking Lower Hudson Valley Celebrities ... So You Don't Have To

Contact Members Update members instantly w/ fast &amp; easy email templates.	Jewish News &amp; Information The Jewish Week-News &amp; information on New York, Israel and the Arts
Update Members Instantly Notify members of upcoming events &amp; news by email. 60-day free trial.	Shomrei Torah Video Bar Mitzvah and Wedding Video 818-727-7746 / 800-644-0206

Ads by Google

« Meryl Streep ... played by Glenn Close

Word to your mazel tov! Paul Shaffer helms rap inspired by synagogue congregant's poem

March
26

With a little help from the Blues Brothers, Bedford resident Paul Shaffer has collaborated with jazz, blues and rock legends.

Now, the CBS Orchestra leader can add Larry Levy to that résumé.

Shaffer and Levy are part of the Mount Kisco Hebrew Congregation, which on April 13 will celebrate not only its 100th anniversary but also Levy's 93rd birthday.

Levy's poem about the anniversary inspired Shaffer to produce a rap video that uses those words and others written by Jewish rapper Etan G. The result is a video that will be shown at an event celebrating the congregation's anniversary, but curious Suburbarazzi readers can view it on YouTube right now.

Like many of Shaffer's efforts, the video is somewhat tongue-in-cheek, but the tribute itself seems appropriate, especially after reading about Levy's life in a press release issued by the synagogue this week:

A native of Poland, Levy escaped when he was a teenager and immigrated to Palestine. Shortly after he left, his entire family fell victim to the Holocaust in Poland and was entirely wiped out. While living in Palestine (before the State of Israel was established), Levy met his wife, Toby, and they ultimately decided to move to America, in search of a better life. They moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they lived for 60 years. When they grew older, they made the decision to live closer to their children—in northern Westchester, N.Y.—and moved to Mount Kisco in 2000.

Mazel tov, Larry!

(File photo/The Journal News.)

This entry was posted on Wednesday, March 26th, 2008 at 4:28 pm by Chris Serico. You can follow any responses to this entry through the RSS 2.0 feed.

Share and Enjoy:    |  |

Advertisement

Summer School at Manhattanville!

Session 1: May 27 - June 27
Session 2: June 30 - August 1
Attention Graduate,
Undergraduate and High School Students!

Catch up on your credits, improve your grades, and go into the new academic year with confidence. Learn more about our Summer School program here.

MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE
Purchase, NY 10577
www.manhattanville.edu

Leave a Reply

It is a condition of your use of the comment features associated with the blogs that you do not: Use the site to post or transmit any unlawful, threatening, abusive, libelous, defamatory, obscene, vulgar, pornographic, profane or indecent information of any kind, including without limitation any transmissions constituting or encouraging conduct that would constitute a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability or otherwise violate any local, state, national or international law. You alone are responsible for the material you post or send. Refer to the Terms of Service.

Name (required)

Mail (will not be published) (required)

Website

About this blog

The suburbs are full of A-list (and plenty of B-, C-, and D-list) celebrities. Consider this a loving tribute to the beautiful, the wealthy, the talented, and the Baldwin of the Lower Hudson Valley.

TOP 100 LIFESTYLE

cafépress.com

Web  Suburbarazzi